FADE IN.

EXT. HIGH SCHOOL – DAY

Students are getting out of cars and walking into school like they usually do.

INT. BATHROOM

Three girls are standing around the mirrors in the bathroom. All the girls are wearing pink and very girly clothing. They are fixing their hair and applying make up. One girl in the front of the other two girls putting on lip-gloss and looking in the mirror, this is CALLIE. Callie is talking to her friend through the mirror.

FRIEND 1

Oh my god, Callie, you look so pretty!

FRIEND 2

I know, Nathan is totally going to ask you to be his official girlfriend when he sees you! He has been hinting at asking you out for, like, ever!

CALLIE

You really think so?!

Callie looks in the mirror again and fixes her hair.

Oh my god, you are so right! And we are going to get class couple in this year's yearbook without a doubt! This is going to be the best senior year anyone has ever seen!

FRIEND 1

With the best-looking boyfriend!

The girls all giggle together.

INT. MATH WING – DAY

A tall, good-looking boy is standing getting things from his locker. He is dressed sharply and his hair is parted perfectly. This is NATHAN.

Callie is walking towards him fixing her hair with a large smile on her face. Callie walks up behind Nathan, who has not noticed her yet, and pokes his shoulder.

Nathan turns to look at Callie.

CALLIE

Hi! You just texted me saying we had to talk, was there something you wanted to ask me?

NATHAN

Oh, right. Well you know we have been hanging out a lot lately-

CALLIE

I know!!

NATHAN

Yeah, and, um I have a lot of fun with you and everything-

CALLIE

Oh my god, yeah I know, like so much fun!

NATHAN

(trying to ignore Callie's interruptions)
Yeah, well I think maybe we shouldn't hang out any more..

CALLIE

Of course! I will be your... wait, what?!

NATHAN

Well, I mean I was just looking at our schedules, and I am taking AP chemistry this year, and you're still in CP1...

CALLIE

What?! But, we will still be in the same hallway, we can still walk to class together!

NATHAN

Um, no Callie, I'm sorry, but this whole AP- CP1 relationship thing is just not going to work out for me, sorry. Hey, this was fun though.

CALLIE

But, but, please! No, please, what about class couple?

Nathan pats her on the shoulder and walks away.

Callie buries her face in her hands and begins to sob. She runs down the hall towards the hallway. Another girl is in the hallway walking towards Callie, this is JANINE. Janine is wearing very pretty clothes and is giving Callie a very dirty look. Callie is still running with her head down with her cell phone in her hands when she runs right into Janine.

CALLIE

Oh, gosh, I'm sorry!

JANINE

Watch where you are going, you mess!

Callie looks up and is even more upset now. She runs away again.

INT- GUIDANCE OFFICE

Ms. Kalakay is typing at her computer. Callie runs into the office, still sobbing with make up running down her face. She is over dramatically crying and gasping for air.

CALLIE

Ms. Kalakay! You have to save me!
I have to be switched into AP Chemistry, right now!

MS. KALAKAY

Whoa, whoa, whoa. What's going on? Are you okay?

CALLIE

Nathan totally just dumped me because I am, like, in CP1 and stuff. Its not fair, I'm, like, smart! I need to be put into AP Chemistry and win him back!

MS. KALAKAY

Um, I don't think you have the grades..

The phone rings and interrupts her.

You can hear a woman yelling in the phone.

Okay, okay. Yes, I can do that. Consider it done.

She hangs up the phone looking overwhelmed.

MS. KALAKAY

Well Callie, that was your mother, you are in AP Chemistry period 4. Good luck winning back your man.

CALLIE

Awesome, thank you so much!

INT- MR. FISKE'S PHYSICS CLASS

Callie walks into class with a little pink calculator, a fluffy pink pen, and a smile on her face. She spots Nathan standing at a table in the back of the room and begins to walk toward him. Nathan sees her too and looks very confused.

NATHAN

Callie? What are you doing here? This is an AP class.

CALLIE

Yeah, I know, I am an awesome person. What's the big deal? I like, love chemistry. I think we have great chemistry, too.

Janine walks up next to Nathan.

JANINE

Here Nate, I got our test tubes.

CALLIE

(disgusted)

You know her?

NATHAN

Uh, yeah. Callie, this is Janine. She is my lab partner-

JANINE

And new girlfriend.

CALLIE

(Looking at Nathan, shocked)
New girlfriend?! What?!

NATHAN

Uh, yeah, sorry Callie..

CALLIE

(looking at Janine)
I cannot believe this! You are totally getting in the way of my perfect senior year!

JANINE

(smirking)
Well isn't that sad! Go cry about it, again.

Callie gasps and walks away fiercely.

MR. FISKE

Alright class everyone get to your seats. Take out your mol sheets.

CALLIE

(to student next to her)
Oh my gosh! You are learning about moles?! I wish I had a beauty mark!

Student next to Callie flashes her a dirty look. Mr. Fiske begins writing an equation on the board. He writes  $Pb + Cl = PbCl$ . Callie raises her hand quickly and looks concerned.

CALLIE

Excuse me, Mr. Fiske!! I have a peanut allergy, are we going to be working hands on with peanut butter in class?

MR. FISKE

What? Callie, Pb stands for lead,
Not peanut butter..

(to himself)

how did she get into this class?...

Callie looks down at her desk, embarrassed. Nathan looks at Callie shaking his head in disappointment while Janine stares at Callie and snickers.

INT- SCIENCE WING LOBBY

Callie is pacing around talking to herself. Friend 1 comes around the corner and sees Callie.

FRIEND 1

Callie! Hey! Are you all right? How did everything go in AP Chem.?

CALLIE

Totally awful! Nathan has a new ugly, mean, freak of a girlfriend! She's all
"Oh, Nate, I have the test tubes, Nate!
I love science, Nate! I'm so smart, blah, blah, blah." It's gross.

FRIEND 1

Are you serious? Well what are you doing out here in the hall?

CALLIE

What do you mean?

FRIEND 1

Stop wasting time! Go tear down that stupid girl and win Nathan back!

A smirk comes across Callie's face as she begins to plot how she will take down Janine.

MONTAGE — CALLIE, NATHAN, AND JANINE IN THE PHYSICS CLASSROOM.

-- Callie pours food coloring into the soap at the sink. Janine washes her hands, then begins screaming because her hands have turned blue. She turns to Nathan puzzled and Nathan gives her a strange look.

-- Callie draws fake crossed eyes on Janine's lab goggles. Janine goes to put them on and she looks crossed eyes. She is immediately embarrassed and Nathan tries to hide his laughter.

-- Callie is sitting in her bedroom studying with piles of books surrounding her. She is still taking notes in a pink notebook, with her small puppy on her lap.

-- Callie switches Janine's chemicals in test tubes behind Janine's back. Showing off, Janine pours the chemicals in with her eyes closed, but the chemicals bubble over and spill all over Nathan. Nathan is annoyed and Janine looks nervous and embarrassed.

-- Callie is sitting behind Janine in class. Janine leans her hair back onto Callie's desk and Callie puts Janine's ponytail in a cup of ink. Janine looks at Nathan trying to flirt with him, flipping her ponytail. Nathan sees her purple hair and gives her a weird look.

-- Callie is at a table in the library sitting with a nerdy looking boy. He is explaining how to do problems to her. She is taking notes and trying very hard to learn.

-- Callie puts a piece of paper on Janine's back that says, "I am only dating Nathan for answers." Nathan reads it on her back and looks very mad.

-- Callie steals the batteries from Janine's calculator. Janine is shown struggling trying to take her test without a calculator.

-- Tests are handed back and Callie receives a 93. When Callie looks over Janine's shoulder she sees she got a 63. Nathan looks at Janine disappointed.

INT- PHYSICS CLASSROOM

Nathan and Janine and sitting at their desks after the tests are handed out. Nathan looks at Janine's grade. Callie is sitting behind Janine listening to their conversation.

NATHAN
Uh, Janine, a 63? Really?

JANINE
I didn't have a calculator!

Nathan rolls his eyes and turns and looks at Callie.

NATHAN
(head nodding)
Hey, Callie what did you get on the Test?

CALLIE
A 93!!

NATHAN
Oh Wow, impressive Cal. So I was Thinking, what are you doing on Saturday night? Maybe we could study
Together or something-

JANINE
(interrupting)
Excuse me! I thought we had our Anniversary dinner on Saturday night?

NATHAN
Uh, yeah. Listen, I don't know if I am still liking the idea of us two together, sorry. You know, I can't be dating someone who is failing AP..

Janine gasps and runs out of the classroom.

NATHAN
(turning to Callie)
So, about Saturday..

CALLIE
Well, I was available last Saturday, but you missed that chance.

Callie gets up and leaves the classroom with pride. Nathan sits in his seat, confused.

NATHAN
What did I say?..

INT- CHEMISTRY CLASSROOM- DAY

Students are sitting in their seats. The telephone rings and Mr. Fiske goes to answer it.

MR. FISKE

Mr. Fiske's Room! Um yeah, sure. Okay, he will be right down. Thank You.
(hangs up the phone and turns to Nathan)
Nathan, you need to go down to guidance. looks like your mom never signed the waiver to get you in this class. You need to go take care of that.

NATHAN

(Embarrassed and awkward)

Uh, okay..

Callie and Janine look at each other, shocked.

CALLIE

He got wavered in?!

The girls laugh and high five as Nathan walks out of the classroom with his head down.
